Before the Court is Gonzalez Plaintiffs’ Motion to Admit Exhibits. The Court only addresses those exhibits where there was an objection. Exhibits that were not objected to are admitted. Exhibits where at least one “x” appears on the summary are admitted. Exhibits were admitted that showed some general relevance though defendants might have been able to show some explanation regarding why they should not be admitted. All hearsay objections were sustained unless previously admitted by the Court. Objections were sustained where the basis of the objection was that the exhibit was a duplicate, but only because the exhibit was a duplicate.

IT IS ORDERED Gonzalez Plaintiffs’ Motion to Admit Exhibits (Doc. 1001) is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the ruling on each specific exhibit is as follows:
