

Script to Be Used for Individuals Who Voted a Conditional Provisional Ballot

Introduction

- I. "Hello, my name is _____ and I am with _____ . You are being contacted in connection with a lawsuit that was filed challenging Arizona's ID at the polls and proof of citizenship for voter registration requirements. Do you have a moment to speak with me?"

If yes: Continue to Part II.

If no: "Is there a better time that I can reach you to discuss this matter?"

If yes: Take down day and time and give to supervisor to coordinate a call back.

If no: "Thank you for your time." Terminate phone call.

- II. "The information needed in order to contact you was gained by a Court order and your personal information is not being shared with the public. Any information that you provide to me during this phone call will be kept confidential pursuant to a Court order. If personally identifying information is gained from this survey and is ultimately filed with the Court, it will be filed under seal. Your assistance is greatly appreciated, but you are not required to provide any information to me. I would like to ask you a number of questions. Are you willing to participate in this survey?"

If yes: Proceed to Part III

If no: "Thank you for your time." Terminate phone call.

III. “Did you attempt to vote at a polling place in the [DATE/NAME OF ELECTION] election?”

If no: “Thank you for your time.” Terminate phone call.

IV. “Are you aware that Arizona law requires you to present identification in order to vote at the polls on election day?”

V. “When you attempted to vote on [DATE/NAME of ELECTION] without identification, were you offered a Conditional Provisional Ballot?”

If yes: Proceed to Part VI.

If no: “Thank you for your time.” Terminate call.

VI. “Were you aware that you were required to return to the polling place or go to a different location to provide identification to county election officials in order to have your ballot counted?”

VII. “Did you later attempt to provide the required identification to the county election officials after completing and casting the conditional provisional ballot [whether later in the day on election day or after election day]?”

If no: “Why not?”

If yes: “Were you told that your identification was sufficient or your ballot would be counted?”

If yes: “Thank you for your time.”

Terminate call.

If no: “Were you told why the form of identification that you provided was not sufficient?”

If so: "What were you told?"

VIII. "Do you have or have you had in the past year any of the following:"

Arizona Driver license?

Arizona Non-operating ID?

Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification?

Indian census card?

Vehicle insurance card?

Voter registration card?

An electric bill with your current name and address?

A telephone bill with your current name and address on it?

A bank or credit union statement with your current name and address on it?

A property tax statement of your residence?

A utility bill with your current name and address on it (including for gas, water, solid waste, or sewer)?

An internet bill with your current name and address on it?

A cable or satellite bill with your current name and address on it?

Official voter mail from your County Recorder or Elections Department (including a sample ballot or publicity pamphlet)?

If the voter answered yes to one or more of the above:

"Thank you for your time." Terminate phone call.

If no to all: “What would you have to do to obtain one or more of the items we just talked about?”

- IX. “Are you aware that you could have voted early and would not have had to show identification?

If yes: “Have you considered voting early in the next election?”

“Why or why not?”

If no: “Knowing this, would you consider voting early in the next election?”

“Why or why not?”

Termination of Call

- X. That concludes the questions that I have at this time. Thank you for your time.”
- XI. If the individual asks who they can contact for more information or with questions, please do not try to answer the questions yourself, instead say: “If you have any questions about this survey you may contact Sara Greene at (602) 640-9350.”

Script to Be Used for Rejected Voter Registration Forms

Introduction

I. “Hello, my name is _____ and I am with _____ . You are being contacted in connection with a lawsuit challenging Arizona’s ID at the polls and proof of citizenship for voter registration requirements. Do you have a moment to speak with me?”

If yes: Continue to Part II.

If no: “Is there a better time that I can reach you to discuss this matter?”

If yes: Take down day and time and give to supervisor to coordinate a call back.

If no: “Thank you for your time.” Terminate phone call.

II. “The information needed in order to contact you was gained by a Court order and your personal information is not being shared with the public. Any information that you provide to me during this phone call will be kept confidential pursuant to a Court order. If personally identifying information is gained from this survey and is ultimately filed with the Court, it will be filed under seal. Your assistance is greatly appreciated, but you are not required to provide any information to me. I would like to ask you a number of questions. Are you willing to participate in this survey?”

If yes: Proceed to Part III

If no: “Thank you for your time.” Terminate phone call.

III. “Do you recall registering or attempting to register to vote in [Name of County] County?”

If no: “Thank you for your time.” Terminate phone call.

If yes: Continue to Part IV

IV. “Was that on [date]?”

“Are you aware that your voter registration form from [DATE] was rejected by [COUNTY] for failure to provide evidence of U.S. citizenship as required by Prop. 200?”

“Did [COUNTY] inform you that your voter registration form had been rejected?”

“How did the County notify you?”

Letter?

Phone call?

Other?

“Did you provide evidence of U.S. citizenship to the County after it notified you?”

If yes: “What did you use as evidence of citizenship?”

Arizona Driver License issued after 10/01/96?

Arizona NonOperating ID issued after 10/01/96?

Naturalization Number?

Passport?

U.S. Birth Certificate?

Tribal ID?

If no: "Do you have any of the following items of evidence of citizenship in your possession or could you easily access them?"

Driver License issued after 10/01/96?

NonOperating ID issued after 10/01/96?

Naturalization Number?

Passport?

U.S. Birth Certificate?

Tribal ID?

If yes: Proceed to Part V

If no: "Do you know what you would have to do to obtain one or more of the forms of evidence of citizenship?"
"What would that effort entail for you?"

V. "Do you recall how you submitted your original voter registration form?"

If yes: "How?"

County Registrar's Office

DMV [which location?]

Public Assistance Agency [which location?]

By Mail

Registration drive [who was conducting it/where?]

Online registration

Other _____

VI. “When you first submitted your voter registration form, was there any particular reason[s] why you did not provide evidence of citizenship with your application?”

VII. “When you first submitted your voter registration form, did you believe that you had properly provided evidence of citizenship?”

VIII. “Have you tried to register again?”

If yes: “When?”

“What County?”

“Were you successful in registering?”

“What did you do in order to successfully register?”

If yes: “Please describe.”

IX. “Are you currently registered to vote?”

Termination of Call

X. “That concludes the questions that I have at this time. Thank you for your time.”

XI. If the individual asks who they can contact for more information or with questions, please do not try to answer the questions yourself, instead say: “If you have any questions about this survey you may contact Sara Greene at (602) 640-9350.”