U.S. ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION
1225 NEW YORK AVENUE, N.W., SUITE 1100
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005

March 6, 2006

Jan Brewer
Arizona Secretary of State
1700 West Washington Street, 7th Floor
Phoenix, AZ 85007-2888

Dear Secretary Brewer,

This letter responds to your office's December 12, 2005 e-mail to the U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) requesting that the EAC apply Arizona state policy (derived from Proposition 200) to the Federal Mail Voter Registration Form ("Federal Registration Form" or "Federal Form"). Specifically, the inquiry sought to apply proof of citizenship requirements for Arizona voter registration to the Federal Form registration process. This request was sent by Robert A. Flores, Voter Outreach Coordinator in response to the EAC's requests for updates pertaining to the Federal Registration Form. As you may know, use and acceptance of the Federal Form are mandated by the National Voter Registration Act of 1993, 42 U.S.C. §1973gg et seq., (NVRA). The EAC is the Federal agency charged with regulating the development and substance of the Federal Form. (42 U.S.C. §1973gg-7(a)). After review of your request, the EAC concludes that the policies you propose would effectively result in a refusal to accept and use the Federal Registration Form in violation of Federal law (42 U.S.C. §1973gg-4(a)).

Arizona's Policy. On December 12, 2005, the office of the Arizona Secretary of State (Chief State Election Official) requested that the EAC apply new Arizona procedural requirements to the Federal Form. These new procedural requirements reflected proof of citizenship provisions recently adopted by the state in Proposition 200. Generally, proposition 200 requires Arizona registrants to submit additional proof of citizenship with their voter registration forms. This usually requires the individual to record, on the form, his or her driver's license number (or non-operating identification license) issued after October 1, 1996. If the registrant cannot provide this information (because they have no license or an older license) he or she will need to provide a copy of an alternative form of identification. These alternative forms include: a birth certificate, passport, certificate of naturalization number and other documents. This portion of Proposition 200 amended Arizona Revised Statute §§ 16-152 and 16-166, which set requirements for the State's registration form and verification of the form. The proposition did not amend Arizona's registration qualifications, found in Arizona Revised Statute §16-101. If Arizona were to apply this policy to its use and acceptance of the Federal Registration Form, the Federal Form's acceptance would be conditioned upon the receipt of supplemental documentation of citizenship. In this way, any registrant who failed to supplement their Federal Registration Form would have their form rejected, resulting in the loss of voting rights.

Federal Authority To Regulate Elections. It is a well settled matter of Constitutional law that the United States Congress, pursuant to Article I, Section 4 and Article II, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution, has the authority to pass laws regulating the manner in which Federal elections are held. This Federal authority has been broadly read by the Supreme Court to include the comprehensive Congressional regulation of a States' voter registration process for Federal elections. Voting Rights Coalition v. Wilson, 60 F.3d 1411, 1413-1414 (9th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 516 U.S. 1093 (1996) (citing, Smiley v. Holm, 285 U.S. 355, 366 (1932)); Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now v. Edgar, 56 F.3d 791, 793 -794 (7th Cir. 1995) (citing Smiley, 285 U.S. at 366, Ex parte Siebold, 100 U.S. 371 (1879) and United States v. Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, 250 F.Supp 330, 351 - 355 (E.D.La 1965)); Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now v. Miller, 129 F.3d 833, 836 (6th Cir. 1995). The Constitution "explicitly grants Congress the authority either to 'make' laws regarding federal elections... or to 'alter' the laws initially promulgated by the states. Thus... article I, section 4 specifically grants Congress the authority to force states to alter their regulations regarding federal elections." Miller, 129 F.3d at 836.

In this way, while Article I, section 2 and the Seventeenth Amendment authorize States to set requirements regarding voter qualifications in a Federal election (Edgar at 794), this does not limit the Federal authority to set voter registration procedures for such elections. Voting Rights Coalition, at 1413. This is true even where States have declared voter registration to be a voting qualification (Wilson, at 1414) or where Federal registration requirements may indirectly make it more difficult for a State to enforce qualification requirements (Edgar at 794-795).

National Voter Registration Act. Consistent with its authority to regulate voter registration in Federal elections, Congress passed the NVRA. The NVRA's regulation of the voter registration process has been specifically and consistently upheld as constitutional by the Courts. Voting Rights Coalition, 60 F.3d F.3d 1411; Edgar, 56 F.3d 791; Miller, 129 F.3d 833. The NVRA mandates that States "shall accept and use the mail voter registration application proscribed by the U.S. Election Assistance Commission pursuant to section 9(a)(2) for the registration of voters in elections for Federal office." 42 U.S.C. §1973gg-4(a) (emphasis added). The statute further allows States to create, use and accept their own form (in addition to the Federal form) if it meets the minimum NVRA criteria for the Federal form. 42 U.S.C. §1973gg-4(b). The EAC is the Federal agency charged with creating and regulating the Federal Form.<sup>1</sup> The NVRA requires the Federal Voter Registration Form to specify each voter eligibility requirement, contain an attestation that the applicant meets such requirements, and require the signature of the applicant. 42 U.S.C. §1973gg-7(b)(2). The Help America Vote Act (HAVA) has added the requirement that the Federal form include two check boxes for an applicant to affirm their citizenship and age. 42 U.S.C. §15483(b)(4).

Discussion. While Arizona has authority to determine registrant/voter qualifications, the manner in which it registers voters for Federal elections is subject to Federal regulation. The Federal Government, through the NVRA and the Federal Form has regulated the process of registering voters in Federal Elections. Acceptance of the

Federal Form is mandated by the NVRA. The Federal Form sets the proof required to demonstrate voter qualification. No state may condition acceptance of the Federal Form upon receipt of additional proof.

Arizona's voting qualifications remain unchanged and are contained in Arizona Revised Statute §16-101.<sup>2</sup> These qualifications are presently reflected on the Federal Form. The statutory changes Arizona has initiated in Proposition 200, which require some residents to submit documentary evidence of citizenship, do not alter the state's voter qualifications. Rather, the statutory scheme is merely an additional means to document or prove the existing voter eligibility requirement of citizenship. As such, Arizona's statutory changes deal with the manner in which registration is conducted and are, therefore, preempted by Federal law. The NVRA, HAVA and the EAC have determined the manner in which voter eligibility shall be documented and communicated on the Federal form. State voter requirements are documented by the applicant via a signed attestation and, in the case of citizenship, a "checkbox." (42 U.S.C. §1973gg-7(b)(2) and 42 U.S.C. §15483(b)(4)). This Federal scheme has regulated the area and preempts state action. Congress specifically considered whether states should retain authority to require that registrants provide proof of citizenship, but rejected the idea as "not necessary or consistent with the purpose of [the NVRA]."<sup>3</sup> The state may not mandate additional registration procedures that condition the acceptance of the Federal Form. The NVRA requires States to both "accept" and "use" the Federal Form. Any Federal Registration Form that has been properly and completely filled-out by a qualified applicant and timely received by an election official must be accepted in full satisfaction of registration requirements. Such acceptance and use of the Federal Form is subject only to HAVA's verification mandate. (42 U.S.C. §15483).

Conclusion. While Arizona may apply Proposition 200 requirements to the use of its state registration form in Federal elections (if the form meets the minimum requirements of the NVRA), the state may not apply the scheme to registrants using the Federal Registration Form. Consistent with the above, Arizona may not refuse to register individuals to vote in a Federal election for failing to provide supplemental proof of citizenship, if they have properly completed and timely submitted the Federal Registration Form. If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned at (202) 566-3100.

Washington, DC 20005

Dear Chairman DeGregorio,

As the Secretary of State and Chief Election Officer for the State of Arizona, I have significant concerns about the March 8, 2006, letter from your executive director asserting that Arizona may not implement its proof of citizenship law with respect to voters who register using a Federal Mail Voter Registration Form (Federal Form). In my mind, such a policy is completely inconsistent, unlawful, and without merit.

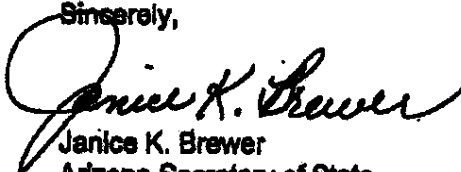

The executive director's opinion is incorrect and unlawfully prevents the State of Arizona from implementing an important voting security measure with respect to those voters using the Federal Form. Arizona's proof of citizenship requirement was passed by over one million voters in 2004, and was pre-cleared by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) on January 24, 2005. In addition, DOJ separately pre-cleared our Arizona Voter Registration Form on May 6, 2005, which includes the proof of citizenship instructions now required of all citizens registering to vote in Arizona. The DOJ has civil enforcement power over the National Voter Registration Act, and has expressed no concern about Arizona's proof of citizenship requirement when registering to vote.

As I stated in my March 9, 2006, letter, I believe your letter provides questionable legal support for its conclusion. After consulting with the Arizona Attorney General, I will instruct Arizona's county recorders to continue to administer and enforce the requirement that all voters provide evidence of citizenship when registering to vote as specified in A.R.S. § 16-166(F).

Paul S. DeGregorio, Chairman

As I requested of you in December, I urge you to instruct voters using the Federal Form to register in Arizona that they provide sufficient proof of citizenship. To do otherwise would be incredibly irresponsible and may unnecessarily disenfranchise voters using the Federal Form to register.

Sincerely,

Janice K. Brewer

SUBJECT: Letter from Election Assistance Commission re: National Voter Registration Form

Last week I sent you a copy of the letter Secretary Brewer received from the executive director of the U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) on March 6, 2006. Attached are two letters sent by Secretary Brewer to the EAC Chairman, Paul DeGregorio, in response to this letter. The second letter sent this afternoon states Secretary Brewer's position that the proof of citizenship requirement set forth in A.R.S. § 16-166(F) must continue to be enforced for all newly registered voters and voters moving from one county to another. Secretary Brewer made this decision after consulting with the Arizona Attorney General's Office. We will continue to keep you informed about this matter.

March 9, 2006

Paul S. DeGregorio, Chairman
United States Election Assistance Commission
1225 New York Avenue N.W.
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Chairman DeGregorio:

I was extremely disappointed to receive a letter from the Election Assistance Commission's executive director, Thomas Wilkey, on Monday, March 6, 2006, that expresses his opinion that our State's proof of citizenship requirement when registering to vote is preempted by federal law with regard to the Federal Mail Voter Registration Form (Federal Form).

On November 2, 2004, over one million Arizona citizens passed into law Proposition 200, which requires all applications for voter registration in Arizona to be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of United States citizenship. Mr. Wilkey's letter provides questionable legal support for its conclusion that a state may not condition acceptance of the Federal Form upon receipt of proof of citizenship and I have asked the Arizona Attorney General to advise me on this matter.

What upsets me most is the manner in which the EAC has handled this issue. My staff proposed changes to the Arizona Instructions to the Federal Form in December of 2005, to reflect our new proof of citizenship requirement. At no point over the past three months was my office ever told that the EAC was questioning whether federal law preempted Arizona's proof of citizenship requirement for registrants using the Federal Form. Moreover, I am told the Commission spent a lot of time researching this question, but never had the courtesy to ask the State of Arizona for its input. Although Mr. Wilkey and the other Commissioners attended the NASS/NASED meeting in early February along with my State Election Director Joseph Kanefield, no one reached out to him to inform me about this issue.

In addition, to make matters worse, my office began getting press inquiries shortly after receiving the letter. It is my understanding that one of the Commissioners distributed this letter before I even had a chance to review it with my staff. I find this very upsetting coming from a federal agency that I believe should be working with the States to implement the National Voter Registration Act and not against them.

Perhaps most importantly, this matter never appeared as an agenda item at any of the EAC's past public meetings and no formal vote was ever taken by the EAC to support Mr. Wilkey's opinion. I cannot help but feel that in your staff's haste to opine on this issue, the matter was not appropriately vetted by the Commission.

I therefore respectfully request that the Commission provide me an opportunity to respond to the legal points raised by Mr. Wilkey before taking a position on this issue, and then properly notice this matter for a future meeting at which time my input can be taken into consideration before a final vote is taken by the EAC. Thank you for considering my request.
